VOL. XVI. NO. 13

WRANGELL, ALASKA, THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1917

PRICE TEN CENTS

SUBMARINES OPERATING ON THE PACIFIC COAST

San Francisco, April 12.—The Navy has directed that every steamship master be warned that German submarines are operating on the Pacific Coast.

Washington, April 12.—President Wilson has directed Colonel George W. Goethals, U. S. A. to take charge of the construction of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

Washington, April 12.—The Senate passed the sundry civil bill. The President was this morning assured by leaders that the bill providing for seven billion for war loans would pass the House this week.

Rio Janiero, April 12.—A messenger has been dispatched to Petropolis to hand the German minister his passports and say that the members of the legation will be sent to Germany on the Steamship Rio Janiero.

Washington, April 11.—The government has authentic information that the Allies are well supplied with munitions and men. The immediate assistance to be rendered by the American government will consist in sending money, bread and meat, and providing for the convoy of ships to Liverpool and London.

Montevideo, April 11.—The government of Uruguay today issued a decree of neutrality.

Washington, April 11.—Bids were opened today for 34 sea going submarines.

Washington, April 11.—The Senate passed an appropriation of two hundred and seventy-eight million dollars for the existing regular army. This money is immediately available.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The State Department has announced that 686 neutral vessels have been sunk since the beginning of the war.

London, April 12.—Nineteen vessels were sunk during the week ending April 8.

Seattle, April 11.—Major Harry Whitney Treat, a millionaire of this city, owner of the Loyal Heights carline in Ballard and other interests, is now busy raising a regiment of one thousand men composed of Japanese for service in the present war.

Major Treat holds a commission in the State of Washington and belongs to the Second regiment of the State militia and obtained permission to raise the regiment at his own expense.

Japanese are flocking to the recruiting office eager to have their names enrolled among the first for service in the United States army.

El Paso, April 11.—The Mexican border situation is said to be very critical. A reliable report was received last evening that bandit Villa had mobilized a large force, mostly of Germans and was headed for the United States border. The report adds that Carranza is now engaged in concentrating his forces to cut them off. On this side of the line, the Americans are boiling with anxiety to be allowed to meet them.

SISTER DID NOT RECOGNIZE HIM

Harvey Taylor who returned last week from a visit to Higgins, Texas, had an experience in the Lone Star state which was a real coincidence. Mr. Taylor went to Higgins, Texas, to visit a sister whom he had not seen in 25 years. His sister knew nothing of his coming. When the train stopped at a town about a hundred miles from Higgins a lady boarded the train and entered the car in which Mr. Taylor was travelling and took a seat near him. When Mr. Taylor got off the train at Higgins this lady alighted also, and it happened that she went to the same hotel he did. Mr. Taylor inquired of the hotel keeper as to where his sister lived, and was informed that the lady who arrived on the same train he did was his sister. She was stopping at the hotel awaiting her husband's arrival from the country to take her home.

Mr. Taylor did not reveal his identity to his sister. But when her husband arrived Mr. Taylor introduced himself to him. The brother-in-law then called his wife and represented Mr. Taylor to her as an old acquaintance whom he had invited to go to the ranch with them for a few days. The three got into the automobile, Mr. Taylor and his sister sitting in the same seat. The three talked about politics and other subjects as the auto sped along the country highway, the sister not suspecting the identity of her supposed new acquaintance.

Finally Mr. Taylor's brother-in-law could stand it no longer and he called out suddenly to his wife, "Alice, don't you know who this is?" The sister turned and looked searchingly into her brother's eyes, and then suddenly recognizing the loved one she had not seen in a quarter of a century exclaimed "My brother!" She was so overcome with surprise that it was almost five minutes before she spoke again.

Mr. Taylor spent several weeks getting acquainted with his sister, and telling her true stories of the Northland which seemed to her like fairy tales.

An experience of this kind seems out of the ordinary to people in the States, but there is nothing strange about it to an Alaskan. When Mr. Taylor sailed from Wrangell on the Prince Rupert four months ago he was in company with Wesley Sornberger of Wrangell, who was enroute to New York to visit a daughter whom he had not seen in 18 years.

The Spokane arrived at 9 o'clock last night with the following passengers for Wrangell: L. T. Jacobson, E. S. Jernigan, Rev. P. P. Kern, W. L. Newlee, J. H. Nicholas, J. A. Snow, W. G. Waters and family.

G. S. Chapin, superintendent of the Karheen Packing Company, accompanied by W. N. Ash, book keeper, and C. E. Anderson, machinist, arrived from the States Thursday. They left for Karheen on the Uacle Dan Friday.

Attention is directed to the ad of the Wrangell Wood Yard. Mr. I. C. Bjorge, the proprietor, has just opened up in business and is now ready to serve the public. Give him a trial. He will treat you right.

For the shave of satisfaction go to Ed Grigwire's shop in the Ubler Block.

Mr. and Mrs. Ottar Hofstad were arrivals on the City of Seattle. The marriage is reported to have taken place last week at Seattle. The bride was Miss Olga Klaboe, formerly teacher of Scow Bay school.—Petersburg Report.

E. S. Jernigan arrived on the Spokane from Ketchikan last evening.

Mrs. Earle Byron is registered from Ketchikan at the Wrangell hotel.

Rev. Father P. P. Kern arrived from Ketchikan last evening and will conduct a service in the Catholic church at 10 o'clock Sunday forenoon.

The A. B. social last evening was a truly delightful affair.

Among these taking part in the program were Mrs. C. G. Burnett, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Huth, A. B. Pennycook and W. H. Warren. Lunch was served.

The Admiral Watson arrived this afternoon. The Wrangell passenger list consisted of Dave Murray and nineteen colored people.

Patriotic Parade

The entire citizenship of Wrangell are invited to assemble in front of the Redmen's hall Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock promptly for a patriotic parade under the auspices of Stikine Tribe No. 5, Improved order of Redmen.

Watch Repairing

I have opened up a watch repairing shop in the Lynch building between Benjamin's store and Wm. Hood's pool room.

Special attention to orders from the West Coast. All work guaranteed. George Cowan.

Ketchikan Term Called

Judge R. W. Jennings has signed an order calling a special term of court at Ketchikan, Monday, May 14th, at 10 o'clock a.m.

The Easter service at St. Philip's church Sunday night was largely attended and very impressive. The duet by Mrs. M. O. Johnson and Mr. E. B. Mitchell was well received. A number that was highly appreciated was "The Resurrection" a reading by Mrs. C. G. Burnett. The words seemed to cry out from the soul, giving sublime expression to the great love and tenderness which characterizes the greatest of all sacred stories.

Rev. J. S. Clark returned on the Jefferson Sunday from Haines where he attended the meeting of the Presbytery. Mr. Clarke was a member of the committee sent to Skagway to organize a church there. The new Presbyterian organization at Skagway starts out with sixty-two members.

The Wrangell Fire Department was called out Sunday morning by a fire in the store of Captain Links. The fire was soon extinguished. The loss was placed at $150, and was covered by insurance. The fire started from a cigarette thrown into a sawdust cuspidor.

Ole Otterson, who was recently fined $500 for a violation of marine regulations has succeeded in getting his fine remitted. Mr. Otterson made a hurry up trip with his gasboat Cedric to move Dr. Bulkley from Sulzer to Petersburg, the doctor being in a big hurry on account of a professional obligation. The boat carried a greater tonnage than the license called for.

LOCAL BRANCH OF RED CROSS IS ORGANIZED

The ladies of Wrangell met at the town hall Monday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a local chapter of the American National Red Cross association. In forming the organization the following executive officers were elected.

Chairman—Mrs. F. E. Bronson.
Secretary—Mrs. F. Matheson.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. J. Pigg.

It was decided to establish two recruiting stations—one at the Wrangell hotel in charge of Mrs. J. G. Grant, and one at the Wrangell hospital in charge of Mrs. W. J. Pigg.

Men are eligible for membership as well as women, the purpose of the organization being to raise funds and make bandages and other supplies needed by wounded soldiers.

The local ladies have been active in securing members. They now have on the membership roster the signatures of more than 150 persons. Above 95 per cent of these are adults.

Owing to the numerous inquiries that have been made concerning the Red Cross we publish the following questions and answers.

1—Who owns the Red Cross? No one. It is a voluntary association for the relief of suffering humanity.

2—Is it a private corporation? No. It is not a stock corporation. It is organized for relief work only.

3—Can a member get wages? No.

4—It's a league of nurses, isn't it? No. Anyone on earth who sympathizes with suffering humanity can belong to it.

5—What are the duties, obligations and qualifications of a member. There are none. Pay one dollar and you are an annual member.

6—If obligations are such that one may not be able to join, but may wish to contribute money or aid or both, will our money be returned to us in case war is avoided? There are no obligations to be taken. The Red Cross does work in peace as in war, and both money and aid are needed all the time. You can do either but both are desired.

7—Does a member have to give time to the society? No.

8—Do I get a button or a badge for my dollar? No. You would have before January 1, but the cost has risen so that the Red Cross is obliged to ask 25 cents additional for either. However every member ought to buy and wear one.

9—Is it a secret society? Absolutely not. It is open to every human being.

10—Is there an age limit? No, none whatever. A baby or a centenarian can join. Payment of one dollar is the only requirement.

11—Are the dues progressive as in other orders? It is not an order, and the only dues are a dollar each year.

12—Isn't this a sort of "society stunt"? No. The Red Cross is the most democratic organization on earth. It knows neither race, creed, color, politics, partisanship nor nationality. In the world there are more than three times as many Japanese members of the Red Cross than American members. Everyone is welcome to join.

13—What do want members for? Because as President Wilson says, "A large, well organized and efficient Red Cross is essential. It is both a patriotic and humane service that is rendered by every citizen who becomes a member of the American Red Cross."

WRANGELL ORGANIZES HOME GUARD

In response to a call issued by Mayor J. G. Grant there was a large and enthusiastic gathering of citizens at the Redmen's hall Monday night for the purpose of forming a home guard unit.

The meeting was called to order by the mayor who stated the object of the meeting.

F. H. Bronson was elected chairman, and J. W. Pritchett secretary.

Mr. Bronson made a brief but patriotic address, after which he stated that the secretary was ready to receive signatures for the organization of a home guard unit.

Fred Lynch, aged 82, was the first to sign, and before the meeting closed 117 had signed for membership, and since the meeting a number of others have signed the roster. The average age of members of the guard is probably 30 years.

The chairman appointed the following committee to take charge of the organization: Dr. W. J. Pigg, W. H. Warren, N. J. McNurney, Arthur J. Downer. The two latter are officers in the United States Army. They are connected with the United States Signal Corps, and are in charge of the wireless station at Wrangell.

The chairman directed the secretary to cable Governor Strong advising him of the formation of the Wrangell home guard.

The meeting was characterized by an atmosphere of patriotism. The enthusiasm was contagious, and everyone was proud of Wrangell, and proud of the boys who had formed the home guard.

The resolution which was signed by those forming the home guard was as follows:

RESOLVED, That we residents of Wrangell, Alaska, here gathered in public meeting approve and endorse the action of our country and its president in declaring a war against the Imperial German government, which action we believe to be necessary for the protection of our rights and people and for the preservation of our national honor. And it is further RESOLVED, As proof of our loyalty and willingness to do our full share towards the carrying on of this war, that we organize a military company to be drilled and trained in so far as our limited facilities allow, and further, that we offer this organization to the President and our country through His Excellency J. F. A. Strong, governor of the Territory of Alaska, for such purposes as he may require them.

MOOSE LODGE PASSES PATRIOTIC RESOLUTION

On the evening of the day that war was declared Wrangell Lodge No. 866, Loyal Order of Moose, unanimously passed the following resolution by a rising vote.

WHEREAS, The Loyal Order of Moose is an organization which fosters a spirit of patriotism, and one which never opens lodge without the flag of our country upon its altar, and

WHEREAS, After unprecedented patience and forbearance our country has been forced to declare war on Germany; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the membership of Wrangell Lodge No. 866, Loyal Order of Moose, endorse the action of the House of Representatives and the Senate in passing a war resolution, and we solemnly pledge our loyal support to the president of the United States, and express our willingness to do everything in our power, even to the extent of sacrificing our life's blood, if necessary, in order that our beloved country may triumph over the curse of militarism, and that the liberty and justice for which the founders of this nation fought, bled and died, may prevail, and the stars and stripes remain an emblem of freedom forever.

The Fire Department was called out Monday evening by a fire on the roof of Chester Worthington's house. The fire was soon extinguished and little damage was done.

OUR COUNTRY GOES TO WAR

The inevitable has happened. In spite of the masterly efforts of the greatest living statesman, President Woodrow Wilson, the United States has been forced into the world conflict and war has been declared on Germany. More properly speaking, the war is against that Imperial autocratic government, which, backed by organized force, has for more than two years been ruthlessly destroying the lives of non-combatants, men, women and children engaged in peaceful pursuits.

As a people, the Germans are all right. Their hopes, their aims and aspirations, when considered independently of militarism, are worthy of the citizens of any country. But the German people, with all the glory that has been theirs in years past, are doomed to be wiped out of existence unless they get rid of the Kaiser and end the damnable curse of militarism. Germany's submarines and other engines of destruction are marvels of helishness, but even with these Germany can not stand against the world.

The one consoling thought in connection with our country's declaration of war is that the conflict will end sooner on account of another powerful nation allying herself with the allies.

In the United States there are a large percentage of people in whose veins there flows German blood. The majority of these, no doubt, cherish the traditions of the land where was rocked their cradle, or that of their fathers and mothers. Among these there may be an occasional one who will turn traitor to the land of his adoption, but it is certain that the great majority of naturalized Germans have developed too much love for American freedom not to be loyal to the flag that has protected them.

This is a time in the history of our nation which calls for acts of patriotism and there have been deeds of patriotism already. Let the music of patriotism swell the breeze, and words of patriotism fall from every lip.

Today we look upon every man under the flag as being a patriot, and if by chance we should hear the snarl of a wolf in sheep's clothing, then we should act, and act quickly. This country has been a haven for the oppressed of all nations for more than a century and a quarter. Those who have lived under the protection of the stars and stripes owe their allegiance to this country. In this hour of national crisis, when we are preparing to send the young men who are the flower of the nation away from home to voluntarily sacrifice their lives for their country, we are in no humor to listen to any pro-Kaiser talk, and if any ingrate should dare to make the slightest slur at the American flag he should be instantly dealt with drastically, and he will; that is certain.

Here and there will be found a citizen of Germany who has been in the States only a short time, and who is a loyal subject of the Kaiser, and would go home to fight for his country if he could get there. These will be under surveillance, and they will soon see enough of American patriotism to understand that a closed mouth and a silent tongue will afford them more safety than anything else.

War is hell. The American people realize it. That is why they tried so hard to keep out of war. But having been forced into the conflict they are willing to die for their country—and by their deeds of patriotism and heroism they will put more glory into Old Glory, and the stars and stripes will remain an emblem of freedom forever.

WRANGELL PATRIOTIC

The large turnout at the Redmen's hall Monday night in response to the call of Mayor J. G. Grant for the purpose of organizing a unit of the home guard was a splendid demonstration of patriotism.

The enthusiasm manifested was all the more gratifying on account of Wrangell having a cosmopolitan population. We have within our gates people from every country of Europe, and we have a good percentage of people who are of Indian or mixed blood, but none of these show any lack of patriotism. No sooner was the militia roster opened for signatures than there was a rush forward, 117 persons signing the resolution. Among the signers there were many who are of Indian blood and not a few who are of foreign birth.

It is a long cry from Washington to Wrangell, but our people are none the less patriotic on account of the remoteness of this northland village. We know that the people in the States have strange notions about this northern world, but when they read reports of how the people of every town and village throughout Alaska are rallying to the flag and offering their services to the nation it will become plain that the frigidity of this northern climate stimulates instead of freezing patriotism.

We are proud to be American citizens. We are proud to be Alaskans, and we are proud of the town in which we live. Wrangell has been weighed in the balance and found magnificently worthy.

LADIES PATRIOTIC

There is no organization in existence which is doing a nobler work than the Red Cross, which goes forth into the blood splashed arena of carnage, picking up from among the dead the living fragments of a shattered humanity—doing everything that human agencies could do to relieve poor unfortunate creatures writhing in the agonies of death by an unholy and cruel fate. This organization also does a great work at home by raising funds, making bandages and other numerous supplies needed by soldiers in action.

No sooner had the news that war had been declared been received than the women of Wrangell were arranging for a meeting to organize a local branch of the American National Red Cross. And the fact that these women were signing a Red Cross roster before the news that war had been declared had reached some Alaskan towns, is evidence that they are going to do good work, and lose no opportunity to make themselves useful to the country they love.

WRANGELL SETAM LAUNDRY

God Gave You Health. Thank Him For It. Go to Church.

OME people never think of God until a loved one is ill or a great trouble besets them. Then they seek the SOLACE OF RELIGION. A clergyman is called in, and prayers are said at the bedside for the loved one's recovery. God is MERCIFUL, and oftentimes these prayers are answered, and the loved one recovers.

IT IS NOT FAIR TO GOD, HOWEVER, TO ASK HIM TO REMEMBER YOU WHEN YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN HIM. WHEN EVERYTHING IS GOING ALONG SMOOTHLY AND THE WORLD LOOKS BRIGHT SOME MEN FORGET THERE IS A GOD. THEY NEVER GO TO CHURCH. WHILE THEY WILL RESENT THE CHARGE THAT THEY WOULD OPENLY OFFEND GOD, THEY OFFEND HIM DEEPLY BY NOT GOING TO CHURCH. THE SUCCESSFUL MAN SHOULD GO TO CHURCH TO THANK GOD FOR HIS WORLDLY GIFTS. THE SUPREME BEING GAVE HIM ALL HE HAS—LIFE, HEALTH, HAPPINESS—AND HE SHOULD THANK HIM FOR THEM.

Thanks to the GO TO CHURCH movement, there has been a religious awakening over the land. RELIGION NEVER WAS DEAD. All that it required was a stimulus, and that stimulus was provided by the GO TO CHURCH campaign. It should not be necessary to urge men to GO TO CHURCH. There isn't an argument that can be advanced by any man who believes in God in favor of staying away from church. Take away the churches and you will have a condition bordering on anarchy.

The man who GOES TO CHURCH is prepared to MEET ANY CRISIS, moral, physical or financial. His faith in a Supreme Being sustains him in the most severe trials.

JOIN THE GO TO CHURCH THROTH NEXT SUNDAY.

WANTS QUARANTINE STATION FOR ALASKA

P. C. McCormack Introduces Memorial to Congress—Needs
Are Manifest

The memorial sets out that the only feasible means of approach to Alaska is by the sea; that the population of this Territory is rapidly increasing and that the movement of people and commerce into the Territory has more than doubled within the past ten years; that 1917 vessels entered the port of Ketchikan during the year 1916, that such vessels carried passengers numbering 27,528, and crews numbering 60,000 and that the nearest quarantine station is located at Diamond Head, over 600 miles from the nearest Alaska port.

The memorial states that vessels entering the ports of the Territory carrying persons afflicted with contagious diseases must either keep the passengers on board ship, send them ashore and be confined in temporary and make-shift quarters, or the ship is ordered to return to Diamond Head.

This is a great source of danger to the health of the passengers and other residents of the Territory and that to return the ship to Diamond Head is a source of great expense to the owners, great inconvenience to the passengers and crew, in addition to adding to the ordinary hazards of the sea and the memorial asks that a suitable, adequate and proper quarantine station with all necessary wharves, buildings and attendants to be established at some convenient place within the Territory of Alaska.

PRISONER MAKES LONG HIKE TO SERVE TIME

SEWARD, April 1.—Emil Anderson, of Nushagak, on Bristol bay holds the long distance record in Alaska for an "unescorted hike from court to cell." Anderson was convicted at Valdez, home of the court in this district, and travelled 500 miles alone to Nushagak, where he served a thirty day sentence. He carried his own commitment papers and had served his time, been released and at two months before word reached the court that he had obeyed orders.

Anderson's offence was that of using a knife in an argument at the Nushagak cannery. After his arrest he was transported across Bering sea, through Unimak pass and northeast again to Valdez for trial, a distance of nearly 1,500 miles by water. The testimony showed that beyond doubt he had cut his opponent, but it also showed that the opponent was the aggressor. Under these circumstances the jury recommended extreme clemency. The court took cognizance of the situation and realization that the man had already been in custody over two months ordered that he return home and deliver himself to the deputy United States marshal and serve a sentence of thirty days.

The last boat had sailed for Nushagak, and Anderson considered the possibility of getting a job on the railroad here and waiting until spring to go home and serve his sentence, but he had left many things undone at home, so he obtained passage on a boat which landed him at Illiamna, on the west side of Cook inlet. From Illiamna, he started on the long overland journey across the upper end of the Alaska peninsula. It was late fall, and there were snow squalls and every possible inconvenience.

For twenty days he waded and swam and mushed over the hills in Arctic weather, eating sparingly of his fast decreasing pack, which he replenished twice with dog salmon from natives. He finally reached Nushagak on October 27, where he at once gave himself up, served his term and was released November 25, according to the official return made to the clerk of the court, which arrived in the winter mail via Cold Bay.

WANT A MARINE HOSPITAL AT WRANGELL

The following was authorized at the last meeting of the Town Council.

We, the undersigned, a committee representing the Town Council of the incorporated town of Wrangell, Alaska, would respectfully represent that in the waters of the Pacific ocean, within a radius of seventy-five miles north, west and south of Wrangell, are operated approximately six hundred small maritime craft by a personnel of more than one thousand men who follow the sea, and who are entitled to the benefit of the United States Marine Hospital Service.

That at present a station at Juneau, Alaska, distant 140 miles south, and another at Ketchikan, distant 90 miles south, fail to furnish without serious hardship such service as is constantly required by these seamen, and that especially during the winter season the lack of a relief in the near vicinity is sorely felt.

That the undersigned would respectfully pray that the United States Marine Hospital Service take immediate steps to remedy the situation, either by establishing a station at Wrangell or entering into such an agreement with the local hospital of W. J. Pigg, M. D., as will provide free treatment for seafaring men at Wrangell.

Few realize how RUST threatened the extinction of "Steel Ranges." Sheet metal, steel or iron is the ideal material for range bodies and ovens. But RUST would destroy it! Rust that worked from the inside not outside.

So there the MONARCH built its defence—of VITREOUS ENAMEL, a material you know from every day household experience is not effected by Rust. Every inch of the MONARCH'S flues is covered with this non-rusting protection.

You can enjoy the satisfaction of cooking on a MONARCH Range year in and year out. No danger of breakdown—no danger of rusting out, just continued satisfactory service. We don't know for how long! But from the looks of this splendid Range we'd guess a life time.

Come in—look it over and see if you don't agree with us
